Simulator Introduction

The TRC3000 CABRIO C172A flight simulator is an exact replica of a Cessna 172 interior with precise panel measurements, providing an excellent training and procedure tool for pilots. It accurately mirrors the experience of a real Cessna 172, making it one of the best training aids available.

Control Loaded Dual Yoke and Dual Rudder Pedals

High fidelity control loaded dual yoke and dual rudder pedals system for most realistic flight experience. Simulated effects: engine, ground, turbulence, real trim, autopilot, stall etc. Real-time synchronization logic for dual-pilot cockpit with automatic pilot/co-pilot take-over.
